Pricing:

One night - $8

Weekend (3 nights) - $20

Week (7 nights) - $50

Optional Additions:

Daily Grooming - $2 a day

Hidden Mountain Rabbitry will provide the following:

- Boarding in a clean, rabbit friendly home.
All boarded rabbits are housed in our home, away from other rabbits, to keep your rabbit safe from any outside threats, to keep your rabbit as calm and relaxed as possible, and to limit the spread of any potential diseases.
Emily Hostetter, of Hidden Mountain Rabbitry, works from home, so is able to watch your rabbit almost 24/7.
Please note that Hidden Mountain Rabbitry does have dogs and cats. All of our cats and dogs are used to rabbits, but for your peace of mind, all boarded rabbits are kept in a separate room from all other animals when someone isn't home to directly supervise.*
- Daily feeding, daily water changes (more frequently if needed), daily grooming (there is an upcharge for this service), daily bedding changes.
- Daily exercise time in our home or outside in a playpen if desired.
- Daily health and wellness checks so that we can assess the health of your rabbit(s) and will alert you at the first sign of a problem. We check for any changes in behavior, eating/drinking, bowel movements, and signs of distress.
- While Hidden Mountain Rabbitry does not provide a cage or pellets for boarded rabbits, they will provide all other necessary supplies. This will include timothy hay, water, feeders, bowls, bottles, exercise pens, and clean bedding (your choice of chopped straw or shredded paper).
- Hidden Mountain Rabbitry can provide two vet references and many personal references upon request.

Rabbit Owner will provide the following:

- A suitable cage for your rabbit(s) to stay in while being boarded at Hidden Mountain Rabbitry.
- Enough pellets to last the duration of your rabbit's stay at Hidden Mountain Rabbitry.
- Any treats, toys, blankets, litter boxes, or extras you want your rabbit to have while you're gone.
- A filled out and signed boarding contract due at the time of drop off.

Rabbit owner agrees to give Hidden Mountain Rabbitry at least 3 days' notice before boarding is to begin.

Hidden Mountain Rabbitry reserves the right to refuse boarding services to any rabbit if they feel they will be a dangerous boarder or if there is any concern of said rabbit(s) being sick or a disease carrier.

Rabbit owner reserves the right to refuse to drop off their rabbit(s) with Hidden Mountain Rabbitry if they have any concerns about safety or health.

Payment is due IN FULL at the time of drop-off and once the rabbit has been released into Hidden Mountain Rabbitry's care, no refunds will be given.

If your rabbit needs to stay with us longer than the agreed upon time, a fee of $8 a night will be due before said rabbit is released back into its owner's care.
